ing Round and Seventy-three Return Cards-H. M. Forrest of the Philadel-phia Country Club Finishes Second. ATLANTIC CITY, April 5.—As fine a collection of expert amateur golfers as could be seen toether outside a national championship drove of from the first tee this morning in the of the annual spring tournament of the Atlantic City Country Club. No doubt Vardon was the drawing card which brought all these players together, but of the 120 entries received there were seventy-eight aspirants who started and seventy three returned cards. With the exception of a strong wind which swept over the links, making low scoring very difficult, the weather conditions were all that could be de-

The best score of the day was made by Walter J. Travis, who played the two eighteen hole rounds in ninety strokes each, 180 for the long thirty-six hole contest. H. M. Forrest, one of Philadelphia's rising golfers, was a close second with 181, while Jasper Lynch upheld the honor of Lakewood by finishing third with a record of 182. Lynch outdid them all for an eighteen hole round, turning in 88 as low score in the afternoon. Forrest was the leader at 80 before Lynch's card came to the front. Travis made the eighth hole in 2 from a good forty-foot put. The same hole was done n an equally low figure by F. P. Kimbail, and han equally low figure by F. P. Kimball, and Howard A. Colby joined the ranks of the men who scored 2 for a hole in the afternoon, when he made the sixteenth hole, 232 yards, from a lucky midiron shot seventy yards from the green. Wilson Potter, a young Philadelphian, surprised the talent by equalling Douglas's score of 184, while Harriman was close behind with 186. Harry Roy Sweny, Arden Robbins and Archibald Graham tied at 193 for the fitteenth and sixteenth places. Ties resulted in every set and there will be a gradual dropping out all along the line to-morrow when these are played off. Four cups are offered by the club for as many sets of sixteen. PLAINFIELD, N. J., April 5.—Lewis E. Waring, chairman of the Golf Committee of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club, has announced that the course will be formaily opened on Saturday, April 21, and a large gang of men are now busly engaged putting it in condition. Special attention is being paid to the turf, particularly that on the putting greens. A special grade of seed of Scotch mixture is being sown and the greens are expected to equal any in the State. There is every prospect that the season will be the most successful in the history of the club. All of the old cups will be played for, and in addition there will be the Van Herwerden cup, just offered by Councilman Jan Van Herwerden, who is treasurer of the club. It will be for a ladies' competition. Several other cups for various competitions have been promised and announcement of them will be made later. At a recent meeting of the Golf Committee, R. M. Shepard was appointed captain of the team, and he will have charge of arranging a series of matches with the Baltusrol. Dyker Mearlow and many other leading clubs. The schedule for the season will be announced next week.

GEORGETOWN TO SEND A TEAM. Sprinter Duffey and Others Will Compete

at the Paris Exposition. Georgetown University has decided to join the ranks of the other American colleges which will send athletic teams to Paris next summer to compete at the games to be held at the Exposition. Georgetown boasts of some fine athletes, one in particular being the fastest man up to 150 yards in the country. The athletic authorities have mailed a circular letter to the alumni and other friends of the university soliciting subscriptions to defray the expenses thirty-six hole preliminary medal play round of the trip. Concerts and dramatic perforof the trip. Concerts and dramatic performances will be arranged to help along the fund, as it is thought the necessary amount will be quickly raised.

A committee consisting of M. J. Colhert, Eugene D. Carusi and J. Nota MeGili of the Alumni Association has the matter of making arrangements in hand. Georgetown, ever since the days of the great Wefers, has enjoyed a foremost position in the college athletic world. This year it has won more prizes than any other university at the various winter indoor meets. The mainstay of the team which will go abroad is A. F. Duffey, who is a second Wefers as a sprinter. He won the A. A. U. championship sprints last year and is acknowledged to be the fastest short distance man on this side of the Atlantic. In addition Georgetown has two or three other men who rank with the best for the various distances up to a quarter of a mile.

Syrense University is also preparing to send rank with the best for the various distances up to a quarter of a mile.

Syracuse University is also preparing to send a team to Paris. John D. Archbald, the Standard Oil magnate, who is President of the Board of Trustees, is the prime mover in the undertaking. He is a generous patron of sports at the university, having supplied the undergraduates with a $10,000 athletic field. Associated with him in the proposed scheme for sending a team abroad are Chancellor Day and the manager of the team. Four men will probably comprise the athletic delegation, including Myer Prinstein, the great broad jumper, and Harry G. Lee, who was second in the championship quarter-mile run two years ago, but who did not compete last year owing to iliness. The Syracuse team finished next to Yale in the annual college games last spring.

General Committee of the Amateur Athletic Association where the question of sending a team was fully considered. It was decided that a team should be selected from this year's championship winners, and that a sum of $500 be allotted to pay the expenses of the team.

The prospect of American teams being in England prior to the Paris meeting has led the association to change its standing custom of holding the championship games alternately in the North. South and Midlands. This year the northern counties were entitled to the fixture, but it was announced at the meeting that they waived their right in favor of the Southern district. they waived their random that it would be ern district.

It was the general opinion that it would be better for the association and the visiting athletes that the meeting should be held in London. The games will be held as usual on the first Saturday in July, in all probability at the Stamford Bridge Grounds.

Princeton Needs $4,000 to Send Her Track Team to Paris.

PRINCETON, April 5.- The Princetonian this norning published a communication from the management of the track team here urging the undergraduates to subscribe to a fund that will be used in defraying the expenses incurred by the team on its trip to Paris next sum-merto compete in the Olympian games. It is estimated that $4,000 will be needed and about timated that $4,000 will be needed and about $3,000 of this amount has already been given by the graduates who proposed the undertaking. However, inasmuch as the trip will be for the most part an undergraduate affair, the management has been loath to ask the alumni for further funds, and next week a room-to-room canvass for subscriptions will be made. It is the opinion on the campus that enough money will be secured to insure the success of the undertaking. It has been learned that all members of the relay team and last year's track team, about fifteen in number, will remain here during the Easter vacation to prepare themselves for the opening of the regular season. The training table will begin on April 18.

Delay in Eastern League Circuit Affairs-Other News.

HARTFORD, April 5.—Just where Hartford will be in baseball this season is somewhat difficult to determine. A strong effort is being made to put a team in the Eastern League, for which a franchise has been secured, and President Powers of the League and C. T. Sheehan of Springfield were in town to-day aiding ex-Manager Barnie and John Gunshanan in forming a stock company to back the team. They were accompanied by Manager Tom Burns of the Springfield team. One of those who have already subscribed is Andy Welch, owner of Charter Oak Park, who says the city shall have a team if he has to back it himself. Hartford is recognized as one of the best baseball towns on the circuit, but mistakes and mismanagement last season hurt it with the local people, who would otherwise respond more liberally. Manager Powers's visit is believed to have brightened the situation somewhat. So far about $2,500 has been subscribed, one-half of what is needed.
